

ICLR Basement Flooding Symposium

May 26, 2011
Toronto
Board of Trade
8:00 am to 6:00 pm

8:00 a.m.

Registration and continental breakfast
(Sponsored by Canadian Underwriter/Claims Canada)

8:30 a.m.

Introduction (Glenn McGillivray, Managing Director, ICLR)

8:40 a.m.

The problem of basement flooding: An overview (Dan Sandink, Manager, Resilient Communities & Research, ICLR)

9:00 a.m.

A climate change adaptation strategy to address urban flooding: The City of Toronto's basement flooding protection program (Michael D'Andrea, Director, Water Infrastructure Management, Toronto Water)

9:30 a.m.

Mandatory weeping tile disconnection to reduce the impact of basement flooding (Kyle Chambers, Wastewater and Drainage Engineering Division, City of London)

10:00 a.m. Coffee break

10:10 a.m.

The Saskatoon superpipe solution to basement flooding (Galen Heinrichs, Stormwater Utility Manager, City of Saskatoon)

10:40 a.m.

City of Hamilton sewer inspection and maintenance program
(Loris Busnello, Project Manager Water Distribution, City of Hamilton)

11:10 am

City of Stratford: Rethinking storm water management standards (Ron Shaw, Chief Administrative Officer, City of Stratford)

Institute for Catastrophic Loss Reduction

Building resilient communities

11:40 a.m.

Municipal Panel, moderated by Grant Kelly, Director, Climate Change Adaptation Projects, ICLR

- Michael D'Andrea - Toronto
- Kyle Chambers - London
- Galen Heinrichs - Saskatoon
- Ron Shaw - Stratford

12:20 p.m. Lunch

12:40 p.m.

What a nuisance: The legal challenge of sewer backup claims (Lunch speaker William Blakeney, Blakeney Henneberry Murphy & Galligan)

1:20 p.m.

Homeowner involvement in urban flood reduction: Survey results from Toronto, Edmonton, London & Peterborough (Dan Sandink, ICLR)

2:00 p.m.

Assessment of climate change induced flood risk to buildings: City of London case study (Dr. Slobodan Simonovic, ICLR and University of Western Ontario)

2:40 p.m. Coffee break

3:00 p.m.

Insurance Bureau of Canada's Municipal Risk Assessment Tool (Robert Tremblay, Director, Research, Insurance Bureau of Canada)

3:40 - 4:45

Insurance panel, moderated by Grant Kelly, Director, Climate Change Adaptation Projects, ICLR

- Carol Jardine, SVP Claims Services, TD Insurance
- Glenn Matheson, Program Mgr., Property Losses, Gore Mutual
- Kevin Smart, AVP Personal Lines Underwriting Policy, Aviva

Sponsors

CANADIAN UNDERWRITER.ca